RALPH HOCKING
Presentation and Discussion of Videotapes

Ralph Hocking is the Director of the Experimental Television Center in Binghamton, N.Y., and Chairman of the Cinema Department at SUNY/Binghamton. Trained as a sculptor and photographer, he has been active in video since 1970, and his video works have been exhibited at the Corcoran Museum in Washington D.C., the Everson Museum of Art in Syracuse, and The Kitchen, the Bonino Gallery, Anthology Film Archives and the Annual Avant-Garde Festivals in N.Y.C. Hocking will present and discuss his most recent videotapes, which explore high speed switching and dissolving between multiple simultaneous camera images.
